House of Character

RABAT - Nestled within one of Rabat's most sought-after and charming alleys, this beautifully converted 400-year-old house of character rich in authentic features, a welcoming living area, a kitchen and dining space ideal for everyday living and entertaining, four well-proportioned bedrooms, and two bathrooms. A dedicated laundry room adds practicality, while the roof terrace offers a private outdoor space perfect for relaxing or hosting, enjoying the unique ambiance of this historic location. This property retains its original charm through traditional stonework, wooden beams, and carefully preserved architectural details, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout.

To be sold fully fully furnished and ready to move into.

A rare opportunity to own a truly distinctive home in the heart of Rabat, where character, history, and lifestyle come together seamlessly.
