A distinguished 400-year-old palazzo situated in the heart of the capital city, offered for sale in shell form with approved permits for conversion into an 18-room boutique hotel. Rich in character and historical significance, the property presents a unique opportunity to bring a landmark hospitality project to life while preserving its timeless architectural heritage.

The approved plans envision a refined boutique hotel that harmoniously blends historic features with contemporary luxury, including elegant accommodation suites, sophisticated common areas, and a rooftop leisure space complete with a pool, lounge, and intimate hammam. The design concept focuses on creating an exclusive guest experience that combines cultural authenticity with modern comfort and understated elegance.

Located within walking distance of the city's most celebrated cultural
