Nestled on a generous plot in one of Swieqi's most peaceful residential streets, this charming semi-detached villa offers spacious living areas, mature outdoor spaces, and timeless character throughout.

Built in the 1960s and exceptionally well maintained, the property enjoys approximately 213sqm of internal living space on a 507sqm plot. The home features a practical square layout with a total of 10 well-proportioned rooms, allowing for an abundance of natural light and an effortless flow between living spaces.

The welcoming ground floor comprises a spacious living room, a formal dining area, a separate kitchen, a guest bathroom, and an additional room ideal as a home office, study, or playroom. Upstairs, a wide landing leads to four bright double bedrooms, each enjoying its own balcony, while the master bedroom benefits from an ensuite
