MGARR - TERRACED HOUSE

The property welcomes you through a hallway leading to a well-proportioned kitchen and living area, complemented by an outdoor yard that provides a pleasant space to unwind or entertain.

This property accommodate four bedrooms, an additional office space ideal for working from home, and two bathrooms. A washroom and roof terrace further enhance the property's practicality and appeal.

Adding to its value, the property is equipped with a 12-panel solar energy system, offering greater energy efficiency and reduced electricity consumption.

Further complementing this home is a street-level garage, providing convenient parking and additional storage.
